

Self-Drive Instructions to Appellation and The Louise Barossa Valley

Appellation and The Louise are located in the easily accessed north-western sector of the Barossa Valley about one hour from Adelaide via the new Northern Expressway.

Driving Directions from the Adelaide Airport and City

Leaving the airport car park or rental car lot, you are on Sir Richard Williams Avenue (the internal airport drive). Exit the airport drive turning right (eastbound – away from the IKEA store) onto Sir Donald Bradman Drive. Proceed about 5km into the Central Business District (CBD) of the city of Adelaide. At the main square in the centre of the city (Victoria Square), turn left (northbound) onto King William Street.

If starting from within the city, proceed to King William Street (the main North/South boulevard through the CBD) and progress northbound following the directions from here:

Proceed about 10km from the CBD through North Adelaide and the city's inner northern suburbs, following signs for Port Wakefield Road (A1). At Gepps Cross five-way intersection, ignore the outdated brown tourism direction sign suggesting that you bear slightly right (for the Barossa) and continue straight ahead toward Port Wakefield on the A1. Proceed about 10km until the left-hand turn off for the Northern Expressway (M20) signposted to the Barossa. This new high-speed limited access motorway bypasses Gawler and connects directly onto the Sturt Hwy (A20) toward Nuriootpa and the Barossa.

Continue through the rolling farmland another 20 minutes on the A20, entering the Barossa Valley passing over a hill with a Penfolds sign at the top.

From Tanunda in the Barossa
